FRUIT AND SHADE TREES, FLOWERS, ORNAMEN-TAL GARDENING, &c.—As the season f r setting out be found at any store in this country, and fruit trees and preparing ornamental grounds is approaching, we carnestly beseech every lot holder in Washington and Georgetown to do something in that way towards increasing the beauty and comfort. of the sister cities. Five doilars spent in setting ou fruit and and shade trees, will in five years enable the owner to get at least $20 per annum more rent for property so improved, than without it. Su city, where the owner reside, on his property, he can appreclate the value to his family of a few eautif. Hade trees or bountiful fault trees, in the yard. W. adv.se all who would ake advantage of this season to set out trees of make a gorden, at once to app to John Faul, seedsman and nurseryman, who, we know, s not only thoroughly competent, but reasonable in his charges. CUTTIAG LIOWA THE STREETS -The neighboraround Thirteenth, between G and If street, are beseeching as to urge those having the management of the matter, to refrain from cutting down Thirteenth street, in that region, until next spring. They pray carnestly to be detended against the sea of mid in which they must live all the winter, if the work is commenced before the Spring. According to their caicu ation, the wasteful injury to their clothes. idimitute and other property, ortain to grow out of attempting this work at this season of the year, intheir lamentations and so reasonable a request:

STABBING CASE .- This morning about 11 o'clock. our men entered the Empire Hotel, and after drinking in a friendly manner, got into a quarr I from some triffing cause, when blows were given, and during the melee one of them stabbed the other, intheting a severe wound on the left side, some six inches in length, and also stabbed him in the head. The blood fairly spouted, and in the midst of it the other two mea rushed in together with the clerk. Joseph McGuch an, and the porter, Thomas O'Brien, and succeeded in separating the parties before any thing fatal was done.

David M'Curdy, who was in company, seized the man who used the knife, and carried him before Justice Morsell, where the case was examined. while the stabbed man was taken to Dr. Boyle, who dressed his wounds in a most skillful manner, the wounded man not wincing from his operations. The name of the stabbed man is Geo. W. Olds and that of the stabber Wm. Weeks. Justice Mor. sell refused bail, and Weeks was committed. Olds gave security.

WYMAN. - This magician is an extraordinary one, and, though now distant from Washington, folks need not be surprised to see h m rise again suddenly, as it were from the grave, to fright the town from its propriety. Byron said-

"Grim reader did'st ever see a ghost?" P. S. Since writing the above, we observe that Mr. Wyman will open at Odd Fellows' Hall this evening, so go and see the wonderful apparition.

DON'T DESTROY THE SHADE TREES .- Mr. Mayor, for heaven's sake don't destroy the beautiful sha e trees on 13th street. Those which are to be cut down in that quarter, to judge from the movements of the workmen around them, have been nearly wenty yea s growing, and are at this moment the most grateful horticultural ornament to Wash ngton. Oh, the Vandalism of the corporation authorities of Washington!

THE WASHINGTON INFIRMARY .- Residents of Washington who are without domestic associations round, and strangers, on becoming sick, will find at the Washington Infirmary, immediately in the rear of the City Hall, every possible comfort which invalids need for their speedy recovery. We have only to mention that Sisters of Mercy are the nurses of the establishment, and that its physicians are among the first in this community to satisfy all that every thing which human care and skill can do for the sick is done there. -

DANGEROUS FELLOW .- Last night, officer Stewart arrested a colored man named Eli Cross, for beating white man named Thomas McCadden. He was taken before Justice Clarke, where the fact that there was doubt of McCadden's recevery became known and bail was refused at present, and Cross sent to jail for a further hearing. McCadden is awfully beaten. It is evident that some one has been umping on him with both feet. He may possibly ecover, though he is still in a dangerous condition.

WATER COLOR PAINTING .- Messrs. Taylor & Maury have received from London a series or works collection of the modern school of water color paintng. We have never seen landscape reenery mo e true to nature in touch, color and effect; whilst the ustorical subjects exhibit masterly treatment and possess thrilling interest. To all lovers of the arts we would strongly recommend as inspection.

CENTRE MARKET .- Our principal market was well supplied this morning, and all saleable provisions. brought high prices. The gangways were crowded, and the salesmen could hardly find room to offer their provisions. Prices have a downward tendency, which is good news to those who struggled so hard during the summer months.

CARELESS DRIVING .- Driving rapidly on the street is a dangerous practice and should be stopped. Last evening, a small child was knocked over on the avenue by a horse, the driver not being able to see the child in time to prevent the mishap. Drivers should be careful how they drive at night, and little of all kinds of Paper. Pens, Blank Books. Notes and children should be kept out of the streets.

WATCH RETURNS .- The only cases in the Guardhouse this morning were two soldiers from the Military Asylum. They were taken in for disorderly conduct, and dismissed this morning by Justice Mor-

The Weather-R. pairs to Steamers-Contracts and Contractors-Round trip Tickets-Noisy Boys-A Chase. ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 10, 1854.

Another levely morning smiles upon us, and business awakes our streets with its noise and Parrow's Southern burlesque opera troups pened an engagement here in Liberty Hall last night, with a large audience present.

The steamboat George Washington has been hauled up on the ways, at Hunter's ship-yard, for repairs. We learn that it is in contemplation to completely refit the boat, and render her yet more worthy the patronage of the traveling public.

The repairs to the steamer Powhattan, of the Southern mail route, have just been completed, and the steamer leaves this morning.

The Gazette names the following as the sections of the Orange and Alexandria extension to Lynchburg, which have been let to contractors :- Sections 1, 2, 3 and 13, Robert Gentry & Co. ; 4 to 8 inclusive, George Leary & Co; 14 to 16 inclusive, Wm. B Harris: 34 to 45 inclusive, and 54 to 59 inclusive, Charles Scott; 46 to 48 inclusive, James W. Henley; 49 to 53 inclusive, Charles B. Quisenberry. Forty-one sections have been placed under contract, and nineteen remain yet unrewarded.

The whole matter will be settled this week. The Mannassas Gap Railroad Company furnish round trip tickets at the fare usually charged for traveling one way, to persons attending the Presbyterian Synod in this city. or the Agricultural Fair at Richmond. For Southern mail line will hereafter stop at Alexandria, and thus save travelers by the evening train the trouble of a trip to Washington. Capt Neale had quite an engagement with. a couple of our b heys, on Saturday night. Shots were exchanged, but without any serious effect. We learn that it is customary for a gang of wild youths to assemble in the western portion of our city at night, and annoy the inhabitants of that vicinity with their riot. Upon the watch giving chase they retreat over the boundary.

A couple of our policemen are in Lynchburg on the track of two suspected burglars.
